

University / K-12 Partnerships

JOMOWORKS | PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT 2023

Jomoworks is an education management consulting firm specializing in University – K/12 Partnership development. Our portfolio includes evidence-based programs from coast-to-coast, funded research and evaluation projects from public and private-sector institutions, strategic HBCU partnerships in community violence prevention and engagement and research dissemination science. Jomoworks has partnered with the National Science Foundation, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, the U.S. Department of Justice, the Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina Foundation, and several local community organizations invested in education and public health.

Our evidenced-based proposal development approach is guided by our three core values:

1. Cultural Integrity – Strength and conviction in honoring and affirming African cultural reality
2. Media Responsibility – Integrity in the use of messaging, visuals, and systems technology
3. Dialogue – Engagement that requires mouths and ears

Jomoworks has over 20 years of experience in faculty and community organizational grant writing, with a winning track record of securing funding for universities, non-profits, and K-12 school districts.

Jomoworks will:

- Identify funding opportunities that fit with your goals
- Connect you with funding program officers
- Attend informational webinars
- Conduct literature reviews
- Draft proposal documents (including budget narratives, evaluation, and dissemination plans)
- Integrate data visualization approaches
- Edit and Proofread proposal materials
- Provide IRB support & assistance
- Navigate the proposal submission system (e.g. grants.gov)

Each proposal undergoes a thorough internal review process with feedback provided by experts in research compliance and ethics; research methods and design; and equity, diversity and inclusion before it is submitted to your funding agency.

Jomoworks specializes in identifying funding opportunities that align with client goals, connecting program staff with program officers, and drafting proposal documents (including budget narratives, evaluation, and dissemination plans). Each proposal integrates data visualization approaches and undergoes a rigorous multi-level external review process before submission. We edit and proofread all proposal materials and provide support in navigating the research compliance and ethics (e.g. IRB) and proposal submission processes (e.g. Grants.gov).

Jomoworks has written research and community grant and contract proposals for universities, community-based organizations, and school districts. Since 2019 our clients have been awarded more than $7 million dollars in federal and private foundation funding.
